FOREWORD

The first volume of An Alphabetical List of Manuscripts in the Oriental Institute was first published in 1942 as the Gaekwad's Oriental Series No. 97. It was out of print since long and was in great demand from the scholarly world. The reprinting of it was a necessity. It, therefore, gives me pleasure to put before the world of scholars this reprint by photo-offset of the first volume of An Alphabetical list of Manuscripts in the Oriental Institute. It covers 7348 Manuscripts of the collection of the Oriental Institute. The first volume was followed by the second volume, covering another 9077 works. Even this was out of print for long, was in great demand, and will be available in the same way very soon. The third volume covering another 6000 works is recently published. The work of the fourth volume is also in progress and will cover the remaining manuscripts of the collection of the Oriental Institute.

I hope this volume will also be well-received by scholars and students as its previous edition.

I am thankful to Shri P.N. Shrivastav, the Manager, The M. S. University (Sadhana) Press and his colleagues for their co-operation in reprinting this book.

On Manuscripts

[When he opened the Manuscript—Library of the L. D. Bharatiya Sanskrit Vidyamandir, Ahmedabad] .

“ For the collection and preservation of ancient Sanskrit Manuscripts many more such institutions are needed in India. This kind of work should be carried on, on a large scale. Ancient manuscripts are scattered not only in all corners of India, but they are, in originals or translations, found in Goby desert, Tibet and China. Their proper preservation, research and publication form important work ”

FOREWORD

The two volumes of An Alphabetical List of Manuscripts in the Oriental Institute, Baroda were published in 1942 and 1950 respectively as the Gaekwad's Oriental Series No. 97 and 114. Both of them were out of print since long and were in great demand from the scholarly world. The reprinting of them was a necessity. The first volume of An Alphabetical list of Manuscripts in the Oriental Institute, Baroda covering 7348 works of collection has recently been reprinted by photo-offset. Looking to the demand, the second volume reprinted by the same process is also being reissued hereby for the benefit of the scholarly world. It covers 9077 mss. of the collection. The third volume covering another 6000 works has recently been published. The work of the fourth volume is also in progress and will cover all the remaining works of the collection of the Oriental Institute.

I hope this volume will also be well-received by the scholars and students as its previous edition.

I am thankful to Shri P.N. Shrivastav, the Manager, The M. S. University (Sadhana) Press and his colleagues for their co-operation in reprinting this book. I thank the University Authorities for releasing the necessary grant for reprinting this Volume.
