A BIBLIOGRAPHY
OF THE UPANISHADS
SELECTED, CLASSIFIED, AND ANNOTATED

NATURE AND SCOPE OF THE BIBLIOGRAPHY

Special attention is called to the three words in which the nature and scope of this bibliography are indicated.

It is a selected bibliography. In general, only those titles have been included which are likely to prove in some way useful, or which have a special interest, historic or other. Many of the works listed have been consulted in the preparation of the translation presented in this volume.

It is a classified bibliography. The titles have been grouped in nine sections, as indicated on the following page, in order to secure a more helpful collocation than would be afforded by one continuous alphabetic or chronological sequence.

It is an annotated bibliography. The titles have been supplemented, in many cases, by descriptions, estimates, and quotations, with a view to indicating more precisely the nature and value of the publications recorded.

In the compilation of this list of titles purely bibliographical considerations have everywhere been subordinated to those of practical usefulness. It seemed better to devote the available space to annotations than to unimportant titles and a barren record of editions and reprints. Certain general works in division 9 are thus cited only in their English translations.

Titles in Sanskrit and in Indian vernaculars are given in condensed English paraphrase, rather than in a transliteration of their native wording, so that the contents of the publications may be readily discernible.
